

Dreamer

news

October 2005

Tutoring Schedule

Monday 3:00-5:00pm
Math and Science

Wednesday 3:00-5:00pm
Language Arts and History

Dreamers must come prepared. You must bring homework assignments, worksheets or a textbooks. You must also come with a willingness to learn!

Dreamer Dollars Top 5

Larry R.	1605
Breanna M.	1517
Talon S.	1325
Jasmin M.	1075
Mar'Kesha S.	1065

Dreamer and Parent Meeting

There will be a Dreamer/Parent Meeting on October 20, 2005. Both Dreamers and Parents are strongly encouraged to attend as there will be a special holiday "treat" as well as Dreamer Dollars.

2005 IHAD Gala

Congratulations to Dreamers Homer Reed, Mar'Kesha Simmons and Travoy Edwards!

These outstanding young people were honored for their achievements throughout the year at the 9th Annual IHAD Gala. Homer was honored as Dreamer of the Year, Mar'Kesha as Dreamer Achiever and Travoy won the coveted Pat Barnum award. Congratulations! Keep up the good work. Other award winners were board members Mary Alice Neilson, Dreamer Builder of the Year, Stephanie Maddocks, Volunteer of the Year, Sheriff Bill Young, Dream Maker of the Year and Gene Sugano as Mentor of the Year.

Dreamer Achiever
Mar'Kesha Simmons

Mentor of the Year Gene Sugano and his mentee Dreamer Michael Luevanos

Ed Expo 2005

There will be Henderson Higher education showcase on Tuesday October 25, 2005 from 10:00am to 7:00pm at the Henderson Pavilion.

Discover more about the outstanding programs and majors available at Henderson's private colleges and universities!!

There will be free food, music, prizes and financial advisors will be on hand to help you with financing your higher education plans.

if it is to be..
it is up to me!!

Becoming Involved

Van Schedule

There is a new van schedule that has been established for the 2005/2660 school year;

Mondays and Wednesdays

Bailey Middle School
Bishop Gorman High School
Hyde Park Middle School
Canyon Springs High School.

Tuesdays and Thursdays

Keller Middle School
Mojave High School
Western High School
Las Vegas High School

Fridays

Bishop Gorman High School
Canyon Springs High School
Eldorado High School
Western High School

Dreamers will be picked up immediately after school and transported to the Dreamer Station for After-School activities. Dreamers will be responsible for their own transportation on non assigned van days. We have bus tokens available. Dreamers will be taken home unless parents otherwise specify. All Dreamers are strongly encouraged to attend the Dreamer Station daily. We have many great opportunities for you to grow and learn. Did we mention that you also earn Dreamer Dollars and redeem them for items in the Dreamer Store.

Community Service

Dreamers are encouraged to take part in this month's community service activity, "Community United Against Domestic Violence". This event will take on Saturday, October 8, 2005, 10am-3pm at the Doolittle Community Center located at 1950 J Street. There are many volunteer activities available for Dreamers. Please call Mona Lisa at 376-1479 to find out what is available and to schedule a time. Dreamers have an opportunity to earn up to 100 Dreamer Dollars.

Dreamers Precious and Destainy duke it out At the Back to School Bash

Dreamers Breanna and Precious spend some time together at Mini Grand Prix

October Birthdays

10/26 - Julie Murray

Schedules

Please provide Mona Lisa with any activity schedules that you have, so that we may come out and help support you and your team.

Dreamers enjoying the IHAD Basketball Court

Activity

October's field trip will take place on October 21, 2005. Dreamers will visit a haunted house. Can you survive the terror? Please reserve your spot by calling Mona Lisa at 376-1479 by October 14, 2005.

Report Cards

Dreamers that bring in their final 2004-2005 report cards beginning October 3-20, 2005 will receive a CD Walkman!

UNLV Football

The UNLV Rebels will be hosting the San Diego State Aztecs on October 8, 2005. Dreamers and their families, who would like to attend, please contact Mona Lisa or come by the Dreamer Station to pick up your tickets by October 5, 2005.