Spring Break 2006

Just a reminder that in order for Dreamers to attend the 3rd Annual IHAD College Tour in Washington D.C., Dreamers need to have a 3.0 GPA for the 1st Semester of the 2005-2006 school year and MUST be at least 13 years old.

Happy New Year

Welcome back Dreamers! We are anticipating a very productive and more active year for everyone. Our goal as a Project this year is to have fun learning and be more involved within our community.

Proficiency Tutoring

The YMCA, Y'Achievers Program is offering free high school proficiency tutoring for high school students. There are three remaining sessions for the 2005-2006 school year test dates. February 25-March 25, 2006 (test dates March 28-31), April 15-May 13, 2006 (test dates May 15-19) and June 10, -July 8, 2006 (test date July 11-13). Please call Breezy Bolden, at 877-9688 to enroll because space is limited. The locations of the tutoring sessions will vary depending on where you live.

Dreamer/Parent Meeting

Our first Dreamer and Parent meeting of the year will be held on January 19, 2006. We will be having Dreamer Council elections and we will be discussing filling out the Free Application For Student Aid for all college bound Dreamers. The positions that we are voting on include, President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. The Executive Board of the Dreamer Council will then appoint six committee chairs; social, leadership, forum & workshops, community service, cultural and newsletter. In order to run you have to be in attendance. New rules for Dreamer involvement and parent participation will also be discussed. The meeting will take place at Dreamer Station at 5:00pm. Please note the change in time.

if it is to be..
it is up to me!!

Becoming Involved

MLK Parade

Dreamers are scheduled to participate in the Nevada State, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Parade on January 14, 2006. We need volunteers to march and carry the IHAD banner. Please contact Mona Lisa if interested, Dreamer Dollars will be available. If you are interested in putting together or taking part in a performance for the parade, please contact Mona Lisa as soon as possible.

Dreamer Service Day

All across the country, Dreamers from first grade through college will participate in National Dreamer Service Day on Monday, January 16, 2006. Over 1,200 Dreamers nationally, will participate in community service projects with the goal of better serving their communities. If interesting in joining us, please call Mona Lisa.

Information

Beginning January 1, 2005, Dreamers and their parents are going to be required to be more involved in IHAD activities, in order to receive certain incentives. Dreamers will be required to earn a minimum of 1000 Dreamer Dollars in 2006 to receive the big Christmas gift from IHAD. Dreamer Dollars are earned by actively participating in IHAD activities, coming to the Dreamer Station after school, and attending tutoring and community service activities that we have monthly. Additionally, out of ten monthly meetings annually, parents are required to attend at a minimum of four meetings, in order to receive items from the Thanksgiving Give-Away. Parents are an important part of the IHAD program and your attendance is critical to your child's success.
